

Department of Theatre Studies (B.Voc.)

Course Outcomes

Basically it is a practical course. Students are to be prepared for getting engagements in stages, television and movies. The course consists of six semester.

1st Sem: First six months is a basic certificate course of “communication theatre”. The course contents a vernacular paper along with concept of oriental and western theatre in addition with practical practice of script writing and stage presentation.

2nd Sem: This semester is mainly for technical practices for use of lights. Mask making, puppet making and presentation and art of makeup. In addition a paper of a communication English enriches the course.

❖ These two semesters conclude with an one year diploma of “Instrumental Theatre”

3rd Sem: This semester deals with different theatrical modes (theory and practical) including folk, traditional and environmental.

4th Sem: Mine, costume designing, sound projection, set making and computer application for these fields (theory and practical) are the subjects of this semester.

❖ These four semesters make students complement for a diploma of “Stage Presentation”.

5th Sem: This semester is for personality development training through acting skill and directing skill techniques.

6th Sem: This semester is gather basic knowledge of law of presenting theatre, street drama, proscenium, third theatre and Yatra-students can choose any course ends with a project work and seminar presentation.

❖ These students will earn a B.VOC. Degree in Theatre Studies (3 years) and will stand successful in life anyhow.