Course Outcomes	Language teaching attains plenitude by reading, writhing and chinning. The students of Sanskrit department get perfection in reading and writing as they have to follow the prescribed syllabus for themselves. But speaking power on particular language needs day to day practice and acquaintance with the vocabulary of the said language. With this end of view, Sanskrit department of the college arranges the three-months certificate course on “Spoken Sanskrit”. We are happy to note that students find interest in the course undertaken and 62 (Sixty two) students are registered.
