Programme Report

The Add-on course on "Secularism in India" was conducted by the Department of Philosophy which was commenced from 02/02/2023-13/02/2023. The coordinators of the course were Mr. Tarun Sarkar, Asssistant Professor and HOD and Miss Moumita Das, Assistant Professor from the Department of Philosophy of Egra S.S.B. College. The course duration is of 30 hours. Interested students were motivated to join the programme. A total of 35 students registered themselves for the programme and all of them completed the course.

Students were adviced to attain the programme according to the routine of the said course. A routine, syllabus and distribution of syllabus among teachers were prepared for the course. Everyday classes were held from 9.15am to 10.15am in the morning and 4.15pm to 6.35pm. in the evening and extra classes were taken and other classes of this course were taken by teachers in the off period of them and of students. On 2nd February, 2023, inaugural session was held from 9.15am onwards.

After the completion of the course, students responded that the course content was interesting, lectures were easy to understand. But majority of the participant's opinion is that the teachers were effective in delivering their lectures. The interactive sessions were extremely beneficial and it helped the students a lot. Certificates were issued centrally from the College authority at the end of the course.

Programme Outcome:

- 1. After the completion of the course, a student learnt to supports the fair and equal treatment of all religions and treats them all as one.
- 2. They understood all humans are equal. There is no difference between different religious groups of people.
- 3. By studying and practicing secularism, they understood secularism strives to build social harmony by discouraging communal tensions and promoting a sense of unity among diverse religious communities. It seeks to prevent religious conflict and promote a peaceful coexistence.
- 4. Secularism encourages cultural exchange and mutual respect among different religious groups.
